The Little Bali Hotel & Resort Company's first round of Bali special hotel offers

The Little Bali Hotel & Resort Company® (LBHRC) has released the first in a series of what the company promises will be an ongoing stream of attractively priced, value-added accommodation deals designed to re-vitalise business for the Bali market.

The release of the special offers follows hot on the heels of the 02 November launch of the "Where the Bali hell are you?" online marketing campaign which, according co-founder Brett Morgan, has now attracted more than 59,000 unique visitors.

The specials, some of which include complimentary sightseeing, massages and meals, are immediately available at five of the group's founding members - the Samsara Hotel & Spa, Puri Etnik Hotel, Villa Coco, Bali Garden Hotel and the Waka Group of Hotels.

Mr Morgan said the specials offered a good range of budgets and standards in several of Bali's most popular locations.

These he said included Sanur, Seminyak, Tuban and Ubud and further afield in the unspoiled Menjangan Island National Park in Bali's north and the surfing mecca of Nusa Lembongan Island.

Pick of the bunch, and aimed very squarely at the budget conscious, is the special offering offering 10 nights from a hard to ignore $99* per person twin share at the Puri Etnik Hotel in Legian complete with daily breakfast and a free Kintamani Volcano sightseeing tour.

Prices, all of which are immediately available, are as follows: -
